GENEVA, July 3.—The American delegation to the three power naval conference, faced with Great Britain's demand for 600,000 tons of cruiser tonnage, has one card left, and it is a strong card, the Tribune correspondent in position to state tonight.

On the surface at Geneva all is quiet, with the Americans preparing to celebrate their independence at least one week before the newly revealed British program of seventy-eight cruisers, each of 1,000 tons, is made public.

The British program, which is being kept secret, is a campaign against the United States. The British

EQUALITY FIGHT TO BE CARRIED
TO BLACK HILLSAsk President to Aid
Bill in Congress.

Washington, D. C., July 3.—[Special.]—Administration support in the next congress to insure the passage of the Curtis-Anthony resolution proposing to submit an "equal rights" constitutional amendment to the states will be asked of President Coolidge by an official delegation from the convention of the National Woman's party.

The party's convention is to be held at Colorado Springs, Colo., July 7 to July 10, and immediately after the final session the delegation will set out by automobile to the President's Black Hills summer home, according to an announcement made today by Miss

Margaret Whittemore, vice president of the party.

Will Visit Governors.

En route to the summer White House the delegates will visit Gov.

William Adams and Senators Phipps and Waterman of Colorado, as well as the governor of Wyoming and Wyoming's representatives in congress.

The delegation expects to travel 600 miles and will be augmented at various points by women from neighboring states. It is expected that Rapid City, near the summer White House, will be reached on July 15.

Miss Gail Laughlin, vice chairman of the National Woman's party and a member of the Maine state legislature, will introduce the delegation to the President.

COOLIDGE AT CHURCH

Rapid City, S. D., July 3.—[CP.—

The Hermon Congregational church was selected again today by President and Mrs. Coolidge as a place of worship.

The simple services, directed by Rolt

Lum, 30 year old student pastor, again attracted a large attendance.

Two church deacons restricted admittance to the tiny structure to the natives of this village of 100 population and to those of the country.

The congregation went ahead with its services as though the attendance of the President was a regular feature.

Outside, the automobiles of tourists lined the road on both sides, stretching down the town's main street and off into the fields which lead to the plains to the east.

Tourists Applaud.

The crowd of tourists applauded as

Mr. and Mrs. Coolidge entered and left the church. The congregation stood on both occasions.

Mr. Lum preached briefly on the dangers of conceit and the necessity for depending upon the Lord for guidance.

He spoke as one who knew his words well and he seemed to be bothered neither by the attendance of the President nor of two classmates from Carleton college, who had come here from Northfield, Minn., to hear him.

Ray Magnuson, a member of the congregation, played a banjo solo when the offering was taken and Miss

Ruth Wells, leader of the choir, sang a solo.

Waves to Priest.

As they drove away in the White House limousine, Mrs. Coolidge waved to the pastor of the Catholic church,

the town's other place of worship, who stood on the church steps directly across the road. Father Philip O'Connell waved back and the President tipped his hat.

Returning to the state game lodge,

12 miles away, the Presidential car was followed by a line of other automobiles bearing licensees from many states. The line of motorists drove steadily past the lodge during the rest of the day.

Tomorrow is the birthday of the President, as well as of the nation, and Mrs. Coolidge is planning a party on the lawn of the lodge. Members of the party who accompanied them from Washington have been invited

as guests.

ASK VISIT FROM AL SMITH

Deadwood, S. D., July 3.—[CP.—

Al Smith of New York today was invited to spend his summer vacation at Pactola, in the heart of the Black Hills and only 12 miles from the State

Game lodge where President Coolidge is spending the summer.

The invitation was sent by John T.

Heffron, chairman of the county Democratic central committee. The committee plans to build a summer home of pine logs in the event that Gov. Smith accepts.

A call will be made soon for a meeting to organize an Al Smith Democratic club in Deadwood and the committee hopes to have the governor here when the club is launched.

THIS YEAR THE FOURTH OF JULY PARADE WILL TAKE THREE DAYS
PASSING A GIVEN POINT4 Flee Crash;
Abandon Dying
Man Under Car

Authorities of Lake county, Indiana, yesterday started a search for three men and a woman who are believed to have fled after the automobile in which they were riding turned over in a ditch on the Jackson highway near Crown Point. The fugitives left the fifth member of the party, Carl W. Gaughan, 30 years old, of Whiting, Ind., pinned under the car and he was dead when passing motorists extricated him. The machine belonged to Peter Esser, a saloon keeper of Calumet City. He and William Brennan, 487 Hobman street, Hammond, are among those sought. According to the police report, the four men and the woman, the latter a cabaret singer, left Calumet City shortly after midnight to spend the holiday at Cedar Lake.

Four Deaths in County.

In Cook county four deaths as a result of automobile accidents raised the toll since Jan. 1, to 46.

Robert Simons, 30 years old, 3540 Polk street, was killed and another youth and three girls were seriously injured when the automobile in which they were riding crashed into a street car on Forbes road in Riverside, at the entrance to the forest preserve.

The injured are Sidney Simons, 15, brother of Robert; Edith Hyatt, 21, 3557 West Roosevelt road, and her sister, Betty, 18, and Anna Rudolph, 3525 Grenshaw street. The injured were taken to the Berwyn hospital. Robert Simons, the driver, apparently failed to see the street car as he drove out of the forest preserve.

Wicker Zell, 15, 1245 North Leavitt street, was struck and killed near his home last night by an automobile driven by Anthony Eugliac, 569 West 14th street. Eugliac attempted to flee and was pursued by other motorists. He was captured when two of his three friends fled.

Wicker Zell, 3 years old, was fatally injured when he was struck near his home, 2120 Polk street, by a car driven by Nicholas Lucante, 2043 Polk street. He died at the county hospital. Harry Benson, 65, of the New Jackson hotel, died of injuries suffered on June 23 when he fell from an automobile.

Satanic Decker and Girl.

Dr. Samuel A. Murphy, physician, 509 North Clark street, and Miss Pauline Dixon, 1284 Altgeld street, were taken to custody last night when the car in which they were riding struck and seriously injured Frank De Leonardo, 65, 1806 Irving Park boulevard. The accident occurred at Irving Park boulevard and the elevated structure. According to witnesses, Dr. Murphy and the girl tried to get away after the crash.

seriously injured when his automobile collided at Clark street and Rogers avenue with a surface car. With him was Miss Irene Shields, 30, 5760 Ridge avenue of the disturbance he will have the winds against him.

Tells How to Cheat Wind.

In the case of high pressure or good weather area, the wind travel clockwise in the north Atlantic, and it is, therefore, advantageous to fly on the northern side of the center of high pressure area. On the other hand, it was impossible for the pilot to fly on the northern side of this area because, as a general rule, find, I think, at a certain altitude, say around 15,000 feet, that the surface winds had shifted to a certain degree towards the west and that instead of having the winds backing him he would have them with him.

I wonder how many people, even pilots, can visualize what it means to fly blindly for nearly nineteen hours, without seeing land or water and seldom seeing a clear sky. I did not find it a very agreeable sensation. The only thing left for us to do was to try to utilize our study of the stormy and high pressure areas we made before starting and try not to get on the wrong side of them.

Due to the able help of Dr. Kimball, Mr. Barrett and Mr. Rowdy (of the weather bureau) I knew before leaving that we were going to strike a storm area for some hundred miles east of Newfoundland.

When Noville informed me our gas consumption for the first few hours was far greater than we calculated, I knew the only possible way to reach land was to have the winds with us.

Stakes All on Weather Map.

Therefore, I staked everything on that weather map. It indicated that if we should fly fairly high for some 100 miles after leaving Newfoundland we would probably have good winds with us and that these winds might blow us a little to the south and then a little to the north of our course, then that we would get into a high pressure area and that around 10,000 feet in this area we would have the winds with us, blowing the plane, generally speaking, a little off our course to the south.

Following this theory, we kept at a high altitude. There was another advantage here because it frequently took us out of the fog and clouds, but frequently we ran into huge clouds that we could not get over, which was not pleasant, for the whole cloud mass was cold and the temperature at the time not far from the dangerous freezing point, where the water that drenches the plane is likely to form into ice. During the dark hours, when I was working on my charts, I could tell when we were in a thick cloud by the water dripping into the navigator's cabin.

"Could Have Broken Record."

I think that at times we were helped by the wind as much as thirty miles an hour in spite of the big load, personnel and equipment we were carrying, and in spite of the fact that a three engine plane has shorter-cruising radius than a one engine plane. We could have, with little over forty-two hours gasoline we found we carried, broken the world's distance record, but that wasn't our object.

While we were still in the clouds and wondering how the winds were blowing up, Noville got in communication with some ships that were in the fog two miles beneath and from these ships got our radio bearing. These bearings told us that we were correct about the drift of the winds and we knew, then our course would take us to Pinisterre in France. There is no doubt that the radio will play a great part in the future trans-Atlantic navigation of the air.

How Bearings Are Taken.

Science hasn't yet developed any instrument that will enable the air navigator to locate himself in a fog except by radio bearings. The ship or station that gives this bearing first gives its position in latitude and longitude. This is plotted on a chart. Then the direction of the airplane is given from this position and the line is drawn in that direction from the ship's station. The time the radio bearing was taken, the plane would be somewhere on a line, but another bearing would be needed to get another line, and where the two lines crossed would be the position of the airplane. The fact that the bearings aren't taken at the same time doesn't bother the navigator, as he knows how far and in what direction he was gone since the first bearing.

It seems that undoubtedly the trans-Atlantic fields of the future will have in their vicinity several radio direction finding stations.

Wife Writes Remorseful Note; Tries to Die; Saved

Having helped to spite Mr. Volstead last night, Mrs. Margaret Johnson decided to end it all, so she wrote her husband, Buck, a note saying she was ashamed of herself for everything, and pinned it on the outside of their apartment door at 2858 North Clark street. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shields, neighbors, saw the note and called the police, who sent the fire department. The firemen shut off several gas jets and revived her.

CHICAGO'S 3 DAY
FOURTH REACHES
ITS PEAK TODAYFireworks Programs Defy Showers Forecast.

Chicago's celebration of the glorious Fourth, made as warlike broadcast by military organizations can make it, is a great success today to lack nothing of the fervor of the "good old days."

Although the city ordinance banning the sale and possession of fireworks has been evaded by many "bootleggers," and large supplies have been stored for sale in territory just beyond the city limits, only two accidents due to explosives were reported in the two day pre-Fourth celebration that ended at midnight.

Constantine Lakdawicz, 15 years old, 12409 South Sangamon street, suffered the loss of his right eye when a torpedo he was holding exploded. Bernard Matter, 16, of 6815 Vernon avenue, was seriously burned by a crackling bomb from a group of boys, that exploded in front of his face. In Waukegan, Margarette Goetz, 12, put a firecracker in her mouth. It was discarded, injuring her.

Showers Probable, Forecast. Unless the weather prevents, the parks and beaches will attract the greater part of today's crowds. Cloudy skies and probably showers, was the forecast by the weather bureau last night. Rising temperature will be another feature of the weather.

The police are striving to halt the explosion of fireworks by individuals, but supervised exhibitions are permitted and there will be plenty of human candles and pinwheels and balloons set places to entertain the crowd.

Pyrotechnic displays scheduled for tonight include those at the Municipal Center, Edgewater Beach hotel, Dyche stadium at Evanston, Farwell beach in Rogers Park, Exmoor Country club, Beverly Hills, Maywood, Albany Park, Chicago, Lombard, Aurora, Highland Park, Oak Park, South Shore Country park, Waukegan, Independence park and others.

Many Diversions Planned. Pyrotechnic addresses, field music, public dancing, band concerts, ball games, swimming, community singing and similar diversions make up the program of the Fourth in Chicago suburbs. Of these, two of the most extensive entertainments are planned for Evanston and for Irving Park.

At the Evanston festivities former Mayor James Hamilton Lewis will be the speaker of the day. The Rev. Martin E. Prethel will give the address at the Irving Park celebration at Independence park. Springfield games and Irving Park boulevard.

Three days of festivities attending the opening of the newly paved section of Belmont avenue will close with the entertainment under direction of the Belmont-Central Improvement association. A parade, numerous sports events and a water fight this evening between two fire engine companies will be features of the program.

Chicagoans Out, Visitors In. While great numbers of Chicagoans went out of town to do their celebrating, hundreds of visitors rode in to spend the holiday. The influx was marked particularly yesterday in automobile traffic and on the transit lines, which were used by the visitors in traveling to various parts of the city.

Two deaths were reported yesterday as the result of the holiday celebration. Lester Bates of 4300 Hamlin avenue was drowned at Twin Lakes, Wis., when he dived from a small boat and failed to come to the surface. His body was recovered soon afterward, but physicians were unable to resuscitate him.

Eddie Arndersack, 6 years old, of Gary, was killed there by a Pennsylvania passenger train. The child ran in front of the train while playing with other children, witnesses said.

GIRL, 5, BURNS TO DEATH; FAMILY IS FOUND DESTITUTE

Five year old Mary Louise McGrath, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James McGrath, was fatally burned yesterday when her dress was ignited while playing around an alley bonfire. Mrs. Grace Shaner of 2920 Congress street, a neighbor, wrapped her quickly in a blanket and took her to the county hospital, but she died there a short time later.

When the police went to the little basement flat of the McGraths at 2721 Congress street, to tell them their child had been burned to death, they found the father, mother, and remaining daughter, Dolores, 3 years old, in destitute circumstances. There was no food in the house, nor is there any money for Mary Louise's funeral. Mr. McGrath has been ill for two years and unable to work. Police and reporters took up a little collection among themselves and left a few dollars with the family stunned by one sudden tragedy and facing that other tragedy of not knowing how they are going to bury their dead.

BYRD REVIEWS
4,000 GIRLS AND BOYS OF FRANCELays Wreath on Tomb of Unknown Soldier.

BY HENRY WALES.

(Copyright, 1927, by The Chicago Tribune.) PARIS, July 2.—Four thousand French boys and girls passed in review today before Commander Richard E. Byrd and his three companions on the trans-Atlantic flight—Lieut. George Noville, Bert Acosta, and Bernard Balchen.

Chosen from among physical culture students from schools in all the provinces of France, the 4,000 were assembled at the Tuilleries gardens for the review. They represented the pick of the young generation which France is training to defend the country in case of war.

The American aviators were met at their hotel by government and army officials a little after 2 p. m. Sheldon Whitehouse, American chargé d'affaires, and Maj. Barton K. Young, military attaché of the United States embassy, also came to the flying review. The parade of the youths and girls began. As the various groups passed they saluted with stiffly extended right arms—much after the manner of the Fascist salute of Premier Mussolini's legions in Italy. A group of athletes gave an exhibition.

Then came a mounted squadron of republican guards, with long horsehair cockades waving from their burnished brass helmets and sabers drawn; they escorted the aviators up the Champs Elysees to the Arc de Triomphe, where Commander Byrd placed a bronze wreath on the unknown soldier's sepulchre.

Guests at Luncheon. The aviators were guests at a luncheon given at their hotel before the review. H. A. Gibbons, representing Rodman Wainmaker, chief backer of Byrd's flight, and Mrs. Gibbons, attended the luncheon.

The flyers have received no flood of offers to go into the trans-Atlantic future tour as did Col. Lindbergh. Examination of Commander Byrd's plane America shows it will not be capable of crossing the Atlantic ocean on a return trip as the result of damage received when it landed at sea on Friday. It is possible even that it may never fly again.

CANADA MOURNS
LINDY'S ESCORT,
KILLED IN PLANEHero of Paris Flight
Sears Over Cortege.

OTTAWA, Ont., July 2.—(AP)—From national Thanksgiving Canada's capital turned today to national mourning for a young American aviator officer. The body of Flying Lieut. J. Thad Johnson, who was killed Saturday when landing with Col. Charles A. Lindbergh's escort, was borne through the streets of Ottawa on a British gun carriage, under the Stars and Stripes, in a full military funeral.

Bells from the Victory tower tolled and tens of thousands lined the street as the cortege passed. As the special train bearing the body back to the United States moved out across the Ontario countryside, Col. Lindbergh in his monoplane, the Spirit of St. Louis, and seven American army flyers swept out of the gray sky to circle around the train and cast flowers into the winds as a last tribute to a departed aviator.

Lies in State in Parliament. Lieut. Johnson's death cast a solemn tone over the divine services of Sunday. All day the body lay in state in the halls of parliament. In the east block the flag draped coffin, bearing the officer's cap and sword, rested, guarded by men of the Royal Canadian air force.

All day citizens, four abreast, moved step by step along the sidewalks of Parliament Hill to the past in hushed sympathy for the pilot who had come to Canada bearing the good will of the American Republic. The Union Jack fluttered at half staff on the parliament buildings.

Shortly after 3 o'clock the prime minister, W. L. Mackenzie King; the Canadian minister to the United States, Vincent Massey; the American minister to Canada, William Phillips, and various members of the Canadian cabinet arrived at the east block. A brief service was read by Maj. the Rev. H. I. Horsey, chaplain of the 38th Highlanders.

Bells of Tower Toll. The bells of the tower rang out the first bars of Chopin's funeral march, and men of the air force bore the coffin to the gun carriage. Royal Canadian mounted police, troops of the Ottawa garrison, mounted police, and war veterans lined the route.

The roar of airplane engines was heard as the funeral moved across the crowded plaza, and out of the west came seven comrades of Lieut. Johnson, swinging in great circles over the city and sweeping down over the procession with engines cut off.

At the Union station a firing party of guardsmen in scarlet and gold and bushes fired three volleys; last post was sounded and the governor general's footguards band played "The Star Spangled Banner," while the garrison presented arms. A few minutes later the special train bearing the body moved out.

It was then that the Spirit of St. Louis appeared. Three times Col. Lindbergh circled, with the American army flyers not far behind. On the third circle he cut out this engine and dived silently to within a few feet of the train, casting as he did so a great armful of crimson peonies.

RITCHIE WILL BE TAGGART'S GUEST
AT FRENCH LICK

Baltimore, Md., July 2.—(Special.)—Maryland politicians attach significance to the meeting this week at French Lick, Ind., of Governor Albert Ritchie and Thomas Taggart, Democratic national committeeman for Indiana.

The governor will deliver two addresses at French Lick before the Indiana State Bar association, the subject of one of which will be "Which Shall It Be, a Government of Law or a Government of Men?"

FOUR BITTEN IN FIGHT WITH DOG;
STRAYS HUNTED

Chief of Police Michael Hughes ordered a roundup of all stray dogs yesterday following a desperate battle on the northwest side between police and a large dog believed to have become mad from the heat of Thursday and Friday. The dog was killed after it bit two boys and two men. Those bitten were:

Bernard Hershkovitz, 14, of 2115 Potomac avenue; bitten in the left leg.

Lesnard Chelka, 15 years old; bitten in left arm and leg.

Morris Joseph, 1410 North Campbell avenue; bitten in throat and chest.

Peter Ryboe, 1735 North Talmage avenue; bitten in the right ankle.

Police Constable Arthur Baumann, Patrick Condon and Bernard Reilly shot the animal at Division and Rockwell streets. Its head will be examined for traces of rabies.

CHANG FREES PRISONERS TO CUT FOOD BILL

Murderers Offered Front Line in Battle.

BY CHARLES DAILEY.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
PEKING, July 3.—In pursuance of economy measures already affecting thousands of government employees, Marshal Chang Tso-lin has ordered the wholesale release of prisoners to save feeding them. Even some of those facing the death penalty are included.

The vernacular papers assert that the released convicts will be offered army enlistments, with those freed from the death penalty sent into the front line in battle.

Mrs. Michael Borodin, wife of the Russian advisor to the Cantonese, and three Soviet courtesies, are not affected. The Communists at Hankow, except M. Borodin, who seems defiant, are preparing to leave Hankow for Russia overland through Shensi and Kansu provinces and Mongolia.

Begin Shanghai Tax Protest.

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
SHANGHAI, July 3.—Chinese shops and mills throughout the international settlement were closed today in a demonstration in the campaign for Chinese participation in the government of the foreign area.

Chinese merchants at a mass meeting passed a resolution against the payment of increased taxes recently voted by the foreign authorities. They voted that if the foreigners attempt to collect the new rates by force the Chinese will call a general strike, as in 1925, and paralyze the city's finances. The mass meeting was presided over by C. T. Wang, former premier and a Yale graduate.

Pay Taxes, But Do Not Vote.

Chinese comprise 95 per cent of the population of the foreign city, pay 70 per cent of the revenues, and are barred from the public parks, municipal orchestra concerts, and from voting. The Chinese masses have meager schools, while the foreign children are well provided for.

SURFACE LINES WAGE PARLEYS OPEN TOMORROW

A new series of conferences scheduled for this week between officials of the Chicago Surface Lines and union leaders will settle definitely whether the trainmen and conductors will strike for more pay, it was declared last night.

At the first joint conference, to be held tomorrow afternoon, President Henry A. Blair of the surface lines and his executive committee are scheduled to meet President William D. Mahon of the street car men's international union; William D. Fitzgerald, vice president; E. D. Bland, treasurer; William Quinlan, local president; and William E. Taber and Joseph J. Kehoe, secretaries.

No action in this connection is expected at the regular monthly meeting of the union to be held in Ashland auditorium tonight. A special meeting will be called later in the week at which the progress of negotiations will be reported by Mr. Quinlan. It is understood.

CHICAGO LAWYER BADLY HURT AS PLANE CRASHES

R. H. Polk, an attorney, was taken to Montrose hospital seriously injured yesterday after an airplane in which he was riding with William Ormebee, a commercial pilot, crashed 80 feet to the ground at Chicago's Irving Park boulevard and the River Road.

Ormebee was only scratched in the fall. Polk was caught in the fuselage which buckled. His nose was broken and he suffered a possible skull fracture and internal injuries.

The two men had been flying for short periods all day long and were taking off once more at 5:30 in the evening when the crash came. Pilot Ormebee said he was just lifting the machine over a fringe of trees when it struck an air pocket and went suddenly into a nose dive.

Mr. Polk lives at 3332 Michigan avenue and has an office at 165 West Monroe street.

WRIGHT AWAIT'S WIFE'S REPLY TO ALIMONY OFFER

Still undecided as to what decision has been made by his estranged wife, Mrs. Miriam Noel Wright, on his offer to settle $5,000 cash upon her, pay all her attorneys' fees and $250 monthly alimony for the remainder of her life in return for his marital freedom, Frank Lloyd Wright, internationally known architect, last night awaited word from San Francisco, where Mrs. Wright is living. Mrs. Wright's latest counsel, Miss Tilla Cecilie Levin, has not received the stipulation containing those conditions which she forwarded to the west coast a week ago for her client's signature, she said yesterday.

Reichstag Chief Honors German Club of Chicago

(Chicago Tribune Press Service.)
BERLIN, July 3.—Twenty-five members of the German club of Chicago were received by President Loeb of the reichstag today. He expressed admiration for Chicago to which, he said, citizens of German blood have made such fine contributions. The delegation was shown about the reichstag and later received by the city fathers of Berlin.

TWO YEAR DRIVE ON MOSQUITOES TO BE PLANNED

62 Fighting Groups Will Outline War July 15.

Sixty-two mosquito fighting organizations in Cook county, varied as to numerical strength and definite activity, have been summoned to take part in the general mosquito conference at the Gorgas Memorial institute on July 15. The units include the various state, city, county, sanitary district and park offices which are dealing with the situation, together with the voluntary organizations engaged in mosquito abatement work in the suburban area. A tentative date for the general conference had been suggested as July 7, but owing to the fact that the object of the conference is to adopt a program for mosquito abatement under the provisions of the recently enacted Hushack law, it later was determined to postpone the meeting until proper time had elapsed for the governor to have signed the measure. The bill finally was passed by the legislature on June 29.

Plan Campaign for 1928.
It is estimated by Arthur Stringer, associate director of Gorgas institute in charge of mosquito abatement plans, that an army of about 25,000 individuals are engaged, to a greater or less degree, in active elimination work at this time throughout the country. The efforts of this army constitute about all that is to be done with the situation this year. While no overwhelming victory may be looked for, Mr. Stringer says, the basic structure for a thorough and successful campaign in 1928 is being built in advance and at the same time having some effect in keeping down to subnormal the prevalence of the pests this year.

"Suggestions as to the organization of mosquito control districts under the new law," Mr. Stringer said, "include the views that all of Cook county should be made a unit of control; that districts should be formed in each of the north, west and south-west sections, and also one consisting of the city of Chicago; and that a single district should be formed of all the territory in Cook county outside the corporate limits of Chicago."

Leadership by Chicago.
"An expression by the mosquito conference of a preference concerning the composition of the unit, after thorough discussion, is the object of the meeting."

"In our opinion the Chicago area now has an opportunity, through the instrumentality of the new law, to take a position as leader in this nation in the matter of mosquito control. When all machinery is set in motion the mosquito abatement should be accomplished as quickly and as completely as it was under military control in Havana of the Panama zone. When the Gorgas plan is applied in the area there will be no more mosquitoes."

Oil Is Distributed.

PASTOR AND BRIDE, WED IN SECRET, START HONEYMOON

Dr. Grover G. Whitsett, pastor of the South Chicago Presbyterian church, and his bride of two days, who was Miss Marion Colvin, left last evening for a honeymoon trip to the Pacific coast. Dr. Whitsett preached a patriotic sermon yesterday morning to his congregation. The wedding ceremony, which was known by only a few friends, took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Colvin, 709 Elmwood avenue, Wilmette, last Friday evening. Dr. George P. Magill, pastor of the Wilmette Presbyterian church, officiated.

Only the members of the immediate families were present. Dr. Whitsett was a naval chaplain during the world war. He was on the President Lincoln when it was torpedoed and spent 18 hours on a raft in the water before being rescued. Miss Colvin held a secretarial position in the office of the board of church extension of the Chicago presbytery in the Chicago Temple.

tion of oil to every house holder for the treatment of undrainable water spots started Saturday, the supply having been arranged by enlisting all garage owners as free oil distributors. Literature on the subject of mosquito elimination has also been distributed to every resident, and a crew of Boy Scouts is engaged in house to house "mopping up."

New York, July 3.—(Special.)—The friendliness of a nameless little waif's smile has a probably won for it a new home amid luxuries and surroundings and an older sister for a playmate.

Little Jean Ellis, the name supplied by a Bellevue hospital, was left in a furnished rooming house at 211 East 84th street on June 21. When her mother failed to return, Alma Gerwiler, the landlady, went to the police station with the little girl and the child was sent to Bellevue hospital.

Pictures of Jean were printed in the newspapers and they presented such an appealing study of healthy babyhood that Billie Burke (Mrs. Florence Ziegfeld) fell in love with the child from its photographs. She went to Bellevue this afternoon to see the baby and was more in love with it than ever. She wants to adopt the child and will probably do so on Tuesday.

AGED WOMAN REPORTED MISSING.
Mrs. E. T. Sautel, 80 years old, living with her daughter, Mrs. Carl Young, 4407 Beacon street, was reported missing yesterday after leaving home alone for a walk.

LOWDEN ACTIVITY FORESTALLED IN BADGER SENATE

Coolidge's Friends Ready to Do Battle.

Madison, Wis., July 3.—(Special.)—Wisconsin's senate is not going to stand for any Lowden for President boom originating in that house if the Coolidge supporters in that body can prevent it, and these men interpret two moves in the upper house as having been designed to advance the cause of Frank O. Lowden, former governor of Illinois.

Senator John C. Shumann, Watertown, introduced a resolution to invite Mr. Lowden to address the legislature. This measure was adopted only after a bitter fight with proposals from Lowden foes to invite other farm experts as well so that Lowden might not get all the farm prestige through a Wisconsin speech.

The senate had passed a bill by Senator Shumann calling for the appointment of a legislative committee to investigate farm conditions in Wisconsin. Senator Schumann, author of the bill, would have become chairman. The senate amended it to displace the legislative members on the committee with three farm experts.

PRINCE OF WALES TO GREET VEILED QUEEN OF EGYPT

LONDON, July 3.—(U. P.)—The prince of Wales goes down to Dover to meet the king and queen of Egypt, Monday, but he will not be allowed to look upon the beautiful young queen. Moslem regulations require Queen Nafiz remain heavily veiled during public receptions.

King Fuad and his queen will be guests of King George at Buckingham palace until Wednesday, after which they will stay at the Egyptian legation.

BALLOON BREAKS ROPES; SAILS FOR PILOTLESS TRIP

Searchers in automobiles were scouting through northern Indiana yesterday afternoon in the hope of finding a balloon that broke its fastenings at the Dyncell spring water resort, 98th street and Kean avenue, and drifted southeast in a strong wind.

The balloon, according to Charles Foster, superintendent of the resort, was valued at $1,000 and was filled with 125 worth of gas. It was capable of lifting two passengers from the ground and two were on their way to the basket when the confining ropes broke.

C. A. Coey, owner of Dyncell springs, has for many years been a patron of ballooning. He was owner of the Chicago, a big gas bag in which he and Capt. G. L. Brumbaugh flew across the Great Lakes and landed in Canada several years ago. Mrs. Coey also passed over the Rocky mountains in this balloon. The Chicago and its airdrome were destroyed by fire in 1921.

ASKS SEARCH FOR DAUGHTER.
Mrs. Augusta Kallstrom, of 3145 Oswood street yesterday requested police in Chicago and Omaha, Neb., to search for her 18 year old daughter, Edith Kallstrom, who left home a week ago after writing a letter stating she was going to Omaha.

HEALTH EXPERT WOULD DO HONOR TO TURNIP GREEN

Birmingham, Ala., July 3.—(U. P.)—The lowly turnip green is one of the south's greatest assets, says Dr. Carey F. McCord, Cincinnati public health expert, who is promoting the erection of a monument to this humble dish.

After a survey of food and feeding habits among industrial workers, Dr. McCord decided that the tops of turnips, boiled up like spinach, had done more to promote health in the south than anything else.

"It has saved so many lives, promoted healthy growth of so many children, it would not be inappropriate to erect a monument or memorial as a recognition of the turnip green's great merits and to commemorate its great service," said the doctor.

Negro Accused of Rape and Murder Is Slain by Posse

Linville, N. C., July 3.—(U. P.)—Broadus Miller, Negro, of Asheville, accused of attacking and killing a 15 year old white girl at Morganton two weeks ago, was shot and killed today by a posse.

Miss Crisafulli Plays Piano to Elmer's Liking

Newly Discovered Musician in W-G-N Concert.

BY ELMER DOUGLASS.

Here's hailing Chicago's newly discovered pianistic luminary, Miss Marie Crisafulli, whose recital over W-G-N, 7:30 to 8 o'clock last night, was the surprise of the day.

Miss Crisafulli seems to have a very subtle conception of tonal beauty, a broad comprehension of the depth and meaning of music, great technical ability, and an individualism that shows in the way she builds up massive effects by a remarkably easy gradation in volume.

The WJZ concert ensemble program, through KTW, 8:30 to 9:30, again heads the list of orchestral concerts. The essential difference between this ensemble and a full symphony orchestra is slight, and the programs are of symphony, orchestra, "pop" concert standard. Features of the evening was a selection played by three violins and it was a gem of the program.

The broadcasting by WJZ of the afternoon band concert at the municipal pier auditorium will be appreciated. The chatter of voices and crying of small children fill in entertainingly between numbers.

The Indiana male quartet, WEBB, 8 to 9, presented one of the most attractive programs yet given.

The recital by Paul Althouse, tenor, W-G-N, from New York, 8:35 to 9:45, aroused little, if any, enthusiasm. His voice seemed more baritone than tenor. The lower and middle voice is excellent in quality, but the upper register is too resonant for radio work and was not produced without effort, thus throwing the voice out of balance. The program itself was above the usual, and included many new and interesting songs.

FUNERAL WILL BE HELD TODAY FOR FRANK MARSHALL

Funeral services for Frank Marshall, for forty years a member of the Chicago Board of Trade, will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock at Rosehill chapel. Mr. Marshall died suddenly Saturday morning at his home, 1130 Sheridan road, Evanston. He was 67 years old. He was born in Chicago, where he was head of the Frank Marshall company. TRIBUNE COOK BOOK

BY JANE EDDINGTON.

The Fourth.

Feed the magic ice creams
As he screams;
Tie as national a dish
As salt cod fish
[once used].

Pack his ice cream in a bomb,
Explosively damp.
Though the shell he of tin,
All is nice within.
[and cook].

Buy peanuts and pops,
As the couple flows,
Squeeze the lemon, too,
For a better brew.
[least drink].

Make the sandwich thin;
Let nicely with Grand and gay [use celebrate].

Get red cherries, too,
And the blueberry hue,
With a roll that is white,
For an elegant bite.
[for you].

Be patriotic in dishes,
With salmon for fishes,
Of the sport that is eating,
There is no beating.
[Lay].

RADIO PROGRAMS FOR TODAY

(Monday, July 4.) (Daylight Savings Time.)

Sattley's Period to Top W-G-N Program

MAC SATTLEY's tuneful half hour of new melodies will be one of the features of the independence day program from W-G-N. This Chicago Tribune station on the Drake hotel, Mac, attuned his banjo-uke, and bringing with him a number of stellar performers, including "Sid" and his "Uke," comes on the air at 12:30 o'clock, and continues his program until just a moment or two before 3. His popular numbers sung by Mac and his assisting artists, banjo and ukulele selections, including "Sid" and his "Uke," comes on the air at 12:30 o'clock, and continues his program until just a moment or two before 3.

The Indiana male quartet, WEBB, 8 to 9, presented one of the most attractive programs yet given.

The recital by Paul Althouse, tenor, W-G-N, from New York, 8:35 to 9:45, aroused little, if any, enthusiasm. His voice seemed more baritone than tenor. The lower and middle voice is excellent in quality, but the upper register is too resonant for radio work and was not produced without effort, thus throwing the voice out of balance. The program itself was above the usual, and included many new and interesting songs.

The broadcasting by WJZ of the afternoon band concert at the municipal pier auditorium will be appreciated. The chatter of voices and crying of small children fill in entertainingly between numbers.

YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN

What Is Childhood Without a Kitchen?

Do you remember that galumphous smell of baking cake as you opened the front door with your schoolbooks under your arm and you dashed into the kitchen calling out, "O, mother, are you baking me a little one?" And do you remember your delight as your mother or adoring grandmother "cracked" the oven door cautiously and let you peek in and see the round little, brown little cake baked especially for your empty young tummy because she couldn't cut into the big Sunday supper layer cake—nor could she stand your hungry longing eyes?

Do you remember, too, when you were still young, the first time you were allowed to make cookies your very own self and roll them and cut them on the stove—where your grandmother and nuts for the eyes and jacket buttons of the gingerbread man?

Do you remember hovering around during the making of molasses candy and the testing of it in cold water [not to mention testing the test, each time] and of pouring it out in layers and putting it in the snow to harden?

I suppose each one of us has his own special set of memories and associations—his own little flashing pictures of his childhood's kitchen, conjured up by a certain smell or a favorite dish. I'm sorry for any one who hasn't.

And I'm sorry for all of young America that's growing up without a kitchen—literally or figuratively. I'm sorry for all the children who live in apartments with kitchenettes, or not even that apology for a kitchen.

And I'm sorry, too, for all the children who have kitchenettes, whose kitchens are empty of the spirit that makes them mean something in a child's life—in fact, in the life of the whole family. For it isn't just the food and material count that it means—it is the warmth and richness, the haven that it represents, which probably goes back to the days when the hearth was the heart of the home.

Has your child such a kitchen? I hope he has.
